

WESTON UNDER PENYARD PARISH COUNCIL

Notes from the meeting held on 12 April 2010 at Weston Village Hall

Chairman Susan Lewis

Resignation of Council Member

It is with regret that the Council have received the resignation from Gwen Caldicutt BEM who has served the Council for over 27 years. Her dedication and involvement at meetings and on Parish matters together with her detailed knowledge of the Parish made her a very valuable member. All members of the Council will miss her attendance very much and wish her all the very best for the future.

The Clerk will be making the necessary actions to co-opt a new member in the months ahead.

Adopt a Red Telephone Box

The meeting agreed to adopt the Red Telephone Box in Weston and to maintain it as part of the heritage to the Village. Once the telephone equipment has been removed, the Council will consider alternative uses for this box and welcome suggestions from residents.

Please contact Linda Dunn on 01989 562818 with any ideas you may have.

2 Millbrook Cottages Pontshill amended plans

Report from Ross on Wye Police

A visit from the Community Police Officer explained the increase in theft on domestic fuel oil and recommended that householders check their fuel tank weekly. Any suspicious vehicles or people around their home should be reported to the Police and vehicle registration numbers noted to help combat this new type of theft.
